Prehaurer—H. H. McKee
Anditor—John Hoeyluk.
Recorder—H. B. Morgan.
Ricerk of Courte—Olin O. Reluiger,
Shoriff—F. R. Schamp.
Supt. of Schools—F. E. Fuller.
County Attorney—J. W. Hospers,
Enveyor—C. N. Sawyer.
Coronor—Dr. A. O. Jongewaard, OONGRESHOMAL.
E. H. HUBBARD, NOUN City.

W. C. Kinnnel, Sheldon, Jowa.

kizenga, A. Van der Moide,

W. C. Kunnet, Sheldon, lows,
REPERRHENTATIVE,
J. F. Morris, froiton, fows,
SincerySors—Win, Desily, Chaleman; M. E.
Smith, A. Van der Melde, Win, Shimp, John

Junician.
P. R. Gaynov, District Judge, LeMars.
D. Mould, District Judge, Sioux City.

William Hutchinson, DistrictJudge, Aiton John F. Oliver, District Judge, Onswa.

C. SELT. W. TIMES TARREST Braina lonvo Orange City as follows: COUNG BAST.

TIME TABLES.

No. 8—Chicago Chissenger 9:50 a.m. No. 16—Chicago Express 6:57 p. m. ro. 21—Stock Freight 9:25 p. m. No. 20—Way Preight 7:40 a. m. GOING WEST.

No. 25— DaSola Express.

No. 25— DaSola Express.

No. 25— Company Pressonger.

No. 25— Way Fredgiat.

1:57 p. m. All trains deily except Sunday. Thekets on sale to all points in the United Tickets on sale to all points in the states and Canada. Buggange chocked to destination. Coupon tickets for sale at this station. Evidents—Call on me at the O.4 N. W. Depot for Sucambile Rates and Tickets. Object on Sucambile Rates and Tickets. Object on Sucambile Rates and Tickets. Object on the sucambile Rates and Tickets. Object on the sucambile Rates and Tickets. Object on the sucambile Rates and Tickets. Object. T. A. MERKER, Agent.

CHURCH DIRECTORY.

FIRST REFORMED OBUROH—Rev. E. W. Buplekamp, Pastor. Presching 9:30 a. m. and 2 p. m. Sunday-school 3:30 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening 7:30. Y. P. S. C. E. Sunday evening 7:30.

AMERICAN REFORMED CHURCH-ROS J. P. Winter, Pastor. Preaching 10:00 a. in and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school 11:15 a. m. Y. P. S. C. E. 6:30 p. in, Prayer meeting Wadnes day evoning 7:30. All arccordially invited.

CHRISTIAN REFORMED CHURCH-Rev Van Delien, Pastor. Sunday preaching 9:30 a m. and 2:00 p. m. Bunday school 4:00

NOTICE: THE HERALD charges regular local rates for publishing cards of thanks escolutions of respect, obituary poetry, etc local rates for church and society

LOCAL MARKETS.

Wheat-$4@91c. Corn-42@47c. Oals = 36@40c. Barley = 51@65c l'otatoes = $0.50. Hogs--$4 00@4.20 Butter—23@25. Eggs—18c. Cattle-$2.50@4.05.

TOWN AND GOUNTY.

Mrs. W. Kamstra was ill this week. J. Lucas was over from Alton Tues-

P. H. Do Jong drove over from Newkirk Tuesday. 👙 Al. Smeenk was home over Sunday from Dakota. S. Paber drove over from Hospers last Thorsday. R. Boeyink drove over from Sioux Center Sunday.

R. Van Zyl of Floyd spent yesterday ≱et Orange City.

A. Wassink spent Sunday at Sioux. Center visiting.

C. Groendyk visited relatives in Newkirk Priday. Dr. H. D. Oggel was over from

Maurice Priday. L. Ketel was over from Allon Thursday on business, H. Siemonama was over from Rock

Valley Thursday, A. Ellerbrook drove over from Sioux

Center Thursday. Harmonicas, special prices at De Kruif & Lubbers.

Miss Mullenburg of Sieux Center spent Sunday here. Mr. and Mrs. J. Gleysteen were over from Alion Sueday.

Mrs. H. Spnan celebrated her 76th birthday last week ...

E. D. Brown was over from Hull Friday on business. Jerry Schut of LaMars visited friends here Sunday.

T. L. Dyk made a business trip to Sieux City Thursday.

Miss Jennie Kraai has been ill this week for several days.

W. Dykstra was over from Huil Wednesday for a visit,

Mrs. R. Hoogland of North Yakima Wash, is visiting here.

I. Herwynen and wife visited relatives at Sibley Saturday. B. Van der Aarde transacted business in Alton Thursday. Miss Bertha Beyer has returned from her visit to Sioux Center. J. Heemstra drove over from Boyden Monday on business. Sunday a son arrived at the P. Van Rockel home to Maurice.

P. D. Van Van Oosterhout and wife spect Saturday at Sioux City.

If Luymes the Middleburg merchant is creeting a new house there.

J. Van den Brink of Maurice transacted business here Tuesday.

Mr. Miller of Lismore, Minn., visit-

Rev. H. Straks of Harrison, S. D., occupied the pulpit of the Dutch Reformed church at Maurice Sunday.

H. Eggink and A. Silckers drove ver to Middleburg Thursday.

E. Thayer of Rock Valley was a Orange City visitor Thursday.

C. Hockstra of Sheldon visited relatives here a few days last week. S. Van der Wiel and wife were over from Sheldon Monday for a visit:

A. Lenderink returned from his visit to Emerson, Neb., last week.

E. Breuklander has bought the town property belonging to K. De Jong. A, Van der Stoep has returned from his visit to Sion's Center and Hull. M. Van Steenwyk visited friends at Nebraska City, S. D., over Sunday. Geo. Brolsma and T. Luymes wor shipped at Middleburg last Sunday. Mrs. J. W. Hospers and Mrs. Wm. legget spent Monday at Sionx City.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. Kuyper at Manhattan, Mont. Miss Dena Van Oosterhout returned

Friday from her visit to Salem, S. D J. W. Downs came down from Sheldon Thursday on real estate business. The quait season began November

S. Dykstra of Hospers made a business trip to the county seat Thurs-first and closes the middle of Decem-day. Mr. and Mrs. A. Van Pelt celebrated their silver wedding last week Fri day.

Jerome Fisher returned last week from an extended visit to Friona,

J. B. Van der Zee and son were over from Sioux Center Monday on busi-

M. Van der Maaten went to Platte, S. D., on real estate business last week.

Mrs. Kane of Spencer was the guest of her daughter Mrs. F. E. Füller this week.

J. De Vries has begun the erection of a barn on his lot east of the court

Rev. J. F. Heemstra supplied the pulpit of the First Reformed church Sunday.

Misses Minnie Spaan and Gertie Beyer went to Sioux Center Monday. Select your pyrography goods now while our stock is complete. De Kruif & Lubbers. Mrs. Breukelman of Harrison, S. D., s the guest of her brother H. Reckes of this city. W. Mouw and C. Bakker of Chandler. Minn., arrived here last week to visit friends. Mr. and Mrs. H. K. De Jong are rejoicing over the birth of a son who arived Sunday. Mrs. M. Penning is building a new house on her property near the First Reformed church. J. J. Van Eizenga and G. Van Amerongen have returned from their business trip to Texas. Mr. and Mrs. D. Vermeer celebrate the twenty-lifth annversary of their marriage next Friday, Attorneys Herrick of Cherokee, Hutchinson and Plank of Hawarden, were in court Monday.

Next Sunday Rev. S. Riepma of Llospers will occupy the pulpit of the First Reformed church.

Ray, P. Marsilje of Springfield, Ill., spoke at the American Reformed church Sunday evening. W. A. King, C. S. Burket and G. J.

Shoemaker of Hawarden were here Monday attending court. P. D. Fabuis, travelling agent for the Holland-American S. S. Company was here Monday on business. Zwier Roetma came home from Holland, Mich., last week to be present at the funeral of Mr. G. Roetman. H. Kurper came home last Saturday from Lismore, Minn., having finished his labors there for the present. J. W. Schultz visited Davis, S. D. Saturday to be present at the 86th celebration of his mother's birthday. F. J. Lohr went to Sionx City Friday morning. He returned in the evening bringing Mrs. Lohr with him.

Sheldon opens, Monday, December 2, Prepare to enter on or before this date. Rev. J. P. Winter delivered his illus- do your shopping early. trated lecture "At the Gates and Within" at Sioux Center last week Thursday. Rev. Van Dellen tilled a classical appointment at Hull last Sunday in the positions. One firm has already spok-Christian Reformed church of that en for seven of their graduates, and city.

Jake Hospers leaves Monday for LeMare where he will take a position as salesman in the Hentges clothing

Miss Cornelia Walvoord formerly am instructor in the Academy is teaching Winter term opens December 2. Write in the public school of Issaquab, at once for catalog. Wash., this year.

Thursday Rev. P. Marsilje accompanied by his bride arrived here. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Schalekamp.

Rev. Borduin of Hall. N. D., supplied the pulpit of the Christian Reformed church last Sunday in the absence of the regular pastor.

Miss Dora Van de Stoep and Herman Van Pelt who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lane Van de Steeg at LeMars returned home Friday. Miss Mattie Collins who has been the guest at the McKee home in this city the past few weeks, returned to her home in Viola, Ill., Tuesday.

H. Bootsma of Pella, spent a few days here last week in the interests of as Domestic missionary of the Chris-Het Ideaal, a new Dutch magazine tian Reformed church of Orange City. published in Grand Rapids, Mich. Merchant N. Balkema was at the nected with the County Merchants' Association of which he is president. John Synhorst announces to THE HERALD that he is ready to do butchering in the country on short notice.

county seat yesterday on business con-

Highest cash prices paid for hides and pelts. Mrs. J. H. Mullenberg of Harley, S. D., and Mr. and Mrs. Sterrenberg of Orange City visited over Sunday at the C. A. Walhof home. Mrs. Sterrenberg, Mrs. Mullenberg and Mrs. Walhof are

Marriage licenses: Joe E. Bryson Koning over 21, Willemina Koolma 18; cost. A. G. Early over 21, Mary A. McNally united Clarence Brothers of Aberdeen, S. D., and Miss Anna Dykstra of this left the same evening for Aberdeen, their future home

Mrs. W. Legget of Grand Forks who has been the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. Bolks the past few weeks left this week for her home. Her mother Mrs. A. Bolks will accompany her to Grand Forks.

At the Commercial Club meeting held last night a subscription list for the band was circulated and about half of the required amount raised. Various other matters of interest and importance were discussed.

Boyden Reporter: Superintendent Fuller is very well pleased with the school work in these parts as he finds it is being done. It is certainly an innovation for a superintendent to call upon the county schools in recent years.

Last Tuesday an exhibition of the world's masterpieces of art was held at the high school building. To those that have never had the privilege of seeing reproductions of famous paintings the exhibition was a rare treat.

Rev. E. W. Stapelkamp has gone from Greenleafton, Minn., where he has been visiting relatives since his departure from Orange City, to Holland, Mich., where he will make his home. His health continues to im-

Among those attending court during the past week have been former treasurer E. S. Thaver of Rock Valley, James Walpole and H. Siemonsma of Hawarden and G. J. Shoemaker, another former treasurer.

The Inter-State School of Commerce of Sheldon, the big business training institution of Northwestern Iowa, will begin its second term Monday, Dec. 2. Every progressive young man and woman in this section of the state should be seen there on that date.

Hull Index: Jerry Finch, son of ex-county clerk of courts, M. J. Finch, of Seattle, Washington, a former fluit Academy student, was in Hull yester- ke played the "Bridal Chorus" from day, enroute to Rock Valley. He is now practicing law in that western city. While in town he made the Index office a short but pleasant call.

If you are looking for winter apples just go over to the Van der Aarde restaurant and see the fine display there. These apples are probably the linest lot ever brought to Orange City, there to the strains of the piano. The bride being hardly a single imperfect one in was attired in white net over silk, a bushel box. One red checked pip- trimmed with Duchess lace. She carpin in the window is fully as large as a small pumpkin.

At the meeting of the Mannenvereeniging of the First Reformed church and left on their honeymoon. On their J. W. Muilenburg was elected presi- return they will leave Holland for dent, K. De Jong vice president, and L. Scholten secretary and treasurer. silje has charge of Brainard chapel, a This society meets during the winter Presbyterian congregation. They will for the discussion of matters of religous and general interest.

Christmas is just five weeks from today. Verily this old earth of ours is meantime there is Thanksgiving coming in a week which will take two or three days off from the shopping per-Winter term Inter-State school of gifts are most appropriate when they are bought long in advance and laid aside for the proper occasion. Better

The Inter-State School of Commerce of Sheldon under its efficient corps of instructors, is proving a great success in fitting its students for commercial the management anticipates no difficulty in placing every student in a paying position as soon as they complete the course. The young people of Northwestern Iowa are certainly fortunate in having such a popular business school so conveniently located. 2-47

Sioux City Journal: Will S. Bowers formerly a reporter for the Journal, and later a reporter and then city editor for the News, has just been made city editor of the Duluth Star, a new paper in the Clover Leaf syndicate, with which the Sioux City News is allied. Mr. Bowers recently has been working on the Des Moines News. He is a son of Geo. Bowers, of Orange City, a well known Iowa newspaper man. Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Wilson left last evening for St. Paul, where Mr. Wilson, as managing editor of the Sioux City News, will attend a meetpapers. He expects to meet Mr. Bow-

Tuesday Rev. Borduin was installed The services were keld at the Christian Reformed church of this city. The speakers were Rev. Van der Mey of Hospers, Rev. Heynen of Rock Valley Peck of Madison. S. D., were married and Rev. Van Dellen of this city. in that city at the home of the bride's Rev. Borduin leaves this week for Washington where he will work in the family and a few intimate friends or interests of his denomination. An Adison phonograph is just the of the most happy events for The thing to help the family to pass the Mail to chronicle for sometime as both long winter evenings and you will find are well known to Sheldon people and them at the A. Stuart jewelry store in popular with the younger folks. The Orange City. You get a heap more bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and comfort out or a phonograph than you Mrs. John Peck who formerly resided do out of a plane and the phonograph in Sheldon and is one of the best young costs far less. A full line of records is ladies that ever graced this earth. She constantly kept on hand and new ones are received as fast sa they come out. 21, Emily May Ferrell 19; Clarence The phonograph brings a concert to tructing in the school of Madson. Brothers 32, Anna Dykstra 25; Fred your home every night at very small Ireton Ledger: The football game at Rock Valley last Friday resulted Last Wednesday Rev. J. P. Winter disastrously for the Ireton team, they being beaten by the score of two to the one comment prevails "the groom five. Some of the best players in the city in marriage. The young couple local team were unable to go and inexperienced substitutes had to be used. Members of the local team claimed, however that they did not meet the regular high school team but a team composed of men, some of them twice the age of the boys, and they further allege that the Rock Valley team played very "dirty" ball, and it was more of a rough and tumble fight than a football game.

Stuart the Orange City jeweler has just received a large consignment of silverware in the latest designs and patterns, making his stock as large as that carried in the Sloux City stores. Silverware makes by long odds the brilliant young attorney and The Mail best kind of a present for the holiday season and one is able to find at the Stuart store, because of the large stock, just what is suitable for useful gifts. Another very desirable feature is that prices at Stuart's store will usually be found much lower than in the city where expensive rents and expensive help add to the cost of things. Better take a look at the Stuart stock and get his prices.

Passaic Daily News: On his return from the West, where on Tuesday evening he preached the sermon at the installation of the Rev. James F. Zwemer, D. D. as professor in the Western Theological Seminary of the Reformed church, the Rev. Dr. Ame Vennema, of this city, was in the wreck of train number fourteen of the Lackawanna road and had a narrow escape. One of the mail clerks had for some time when the visiting team the same place, Henry Churchyard of his skull fractured, several other employes were badly scratched and bruised, but none of the passengers were injured. Dr. Vennema reached home about 6 o'clock last evening. Dr. Vennema is a brother of Mrs. D. H. Schalekamp of this city.

Holland City News: Tuesday after noon at 5 o'clock occured the marriage of the Rev. Peter J. Marsilje and Miss "Rose Maiden," by Cowen, while the bridal party took their places under a bower of smilax and before a bank of luxurious ferns. The bride was given away by her cousin, H. Vander Ploeg. of Chicago. Little Myra Manting acted as ring bearer. The Rev. H. J. Veldman read the marriage service ried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. During the course of the evening they quietly stole away from their friends Springfield, Itl., where the Rev. Mar-

be at home after fanuary I.

Van Pelt Silver Wedding. Twenty-five years ago THE HERALD contained this notice; "Married, Nov, full of trouble and tribulation. In the 15, 1882, by Rev. J. W. Warnshuis, Albertus Van Pelt and Miss Susan The committee found that 24 members Mieras. The groom is one of Holland | were ready to join at once and seven township's best young farmers and his iod. It is usually the case that holiday bride is a charming young Miss, stand- ture. J. S. Mieras and P. Van Peuring well up in society." The worthy sem were elected elders and J. S. couple whose marriage was thus noted, Mieras and W. Hensinkveld deacons. celebrated their silver wedding out at their fine home Friday evening. A large number of guests were present many of whom had been witnesses to held in the M. E. church which has the ceremony of twenty-five years ago. They brought a table full of presents which were greatly admired. The supper was a great feature as might have been expected at the Van Peit home. Music enlivened the evening, furnished by Misees Maggie Synhorst, Gertrude and Harriet Van Pelt, Ed Van den Berg and Richard Van Pelt, The guests present were:

Messrs. and Mesdames J. S. Mieras, Y Moir, D. Doherty, Wm. Mieras, J. E. Mieras, F. A. Mieras, C. Jackson, Mrs. L. Mieras, Miss Dina Micras. Mrs. Van der Shuis o Maurice, Messrs. and Mesdames J. G. Van en Berg, Geo. Oelrich, G. T. Hatley, G. L. Van de Steeg, H. De Kraay, J. T. Klein, John Synhorst, D. Van Pelt, L. D. Van Pelt, R an Pelt. Frank Van der Stoep, L. ,Van der Stoep, A. Van der Stoep. L. Vos. Messrs. L. Van Pelt, John Broisma, Hugo and Frank Synhorst, Andrew Van Peit, Herman Van Pelt, F. Van der Stoep, G. T. Van de Steeg. Miss Helen Smidt of LeMars, Mrs. John Brinks and Miss Anna Brinks of Sioux Cener, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smit of Alton, 2518. H. Ellerbrock of Sioux City. Master Richard Van Pelt, Misses Gertrude, Anna and Harriet Van Peit, Master Dick Van der Stoep, Misses Dina and Kitty Van der Stoep, Jennie an laggie Synhorst, Miss dimma Van den Berg Easter Edward Van den Berg.

A pleasant feature of the occasion was the presence of the nine children, ing of all the editors of the Clover Leaf who are Mrs. H. Ellerbrock, Robert, Leonard, Ada, Willie, Frances, Luciin, Virgii and Vernai.

Blamend-Perk. The Sheldon Mail has the following account of the wedding of T. E. Diamond formerly of this city:

Tuesday morning at 8:30 Tobe E Diamond of this city and Miss Maud parents before only the immediate the contracting parties. This is one is a graduate from the local high While here she was one of the most popular girls of town and generally esteemed by all. She has often visited here since the removal of the family to Madison. To those who knew her is to be congratulated." The groom is one of Sheldon's most prominent at torneys and prominent among Sheldon business men. He came to America when but a mere lad and was thrown apon his own resources with the world before him, He taught school in Q'Brien and Sioux county and was principal of the Orange City schools for four years. Later he took a law course at the State University at Iowa City graduating with honors and was admitted to the bar. Four years ago he came to Sheldon and located in the office with W. D. Boies. In the last municipal election he was elected City Solicitor by a large majority. Re is a has no fear but what the groom will continue to climb the ladder of success and in a short time be prominently recognized over the state.

The happy couple are spending their honeymoon in Minneapolis where they will make purchases for their home and are expected to arrive in Sheldon Sunday or Monday of next week. They will occupy the beautiful little men and children. cottage built expressly for them by Dr. F. L. Myers adjoining the doctors home.

Sheldon ys. Orange City.

Last Saturday the football teams of the Sheldon high school and the Agademy met on the Academy campus. In the first half the local team had the advantage and were favored by fortune. The ball was kept in midfield was forced to punt. As luck would have it the Academy team secured the ball and tried a drop kick which was blocked but the ball was again secured by the local team and touch down made. Dyk kicked goal. Nothing more was accomplished in this half. In the second half Sheldon played a more open game using the forward pass again and again for good gains. Minnie Vander Ploeg, at the home The ball was in Sheldon's possession of the bride's mother, Mrs. H. Vander during nearly the entire half. Final Ploeg, 24 East Thirteenth street. At score Sheldon 22, Academy 6. The the appointed hour Miss Anna Schuel- game was a good exhibition of the

. Officials	Kolyn and
Simms. Line-up.
Position	Orange City
	Ponnen
	Reiniger
	Elings
	Dyk
	Van Zante
	Van Diest
r. e.,	Snyhorst
	Visscher
	Meyers
r. h	Pennings
	Fisher
	-up.  Position  e.  . g l t . l e r g r t . r e q b, . l h . r h

New Church At Maurice. Kruif of this city and Rev. H. Straks of Harrison, S. D., acting as a committee of the classis of Dakota organized a new church at Maurice last Monday evening. The meeting was held at the M. E. church building, Rev. J. P. Winter conducted the services supported by Rev. Stracks and Rev. J. A. De Spelder. After the services the organiza. tion of the church was completed. more would be added in the near fu-A. Sunday school of 50 members was organized and a Ladies Aid Society of 28 members. The sermous will be been rented for the purpose. The church is to be English speaking.

District Court. Judge Oliver and steuographer Hamilton held an adjourned session of court for Judge Mould begining Monday afternoon. After the selection of a jury in the Hawarden creamery case the rest of the panel was discharged no other cases being noticed for trial. The Judge adjourned for the term Thesday afternoon, the creamery case being settled out court. He left the same evening for Des Moines where he will receive the thirty third degree of masonry to which he was recently elected as an honorary member. This is the highest honor which can be conferred in masonry.

Ducks For Thanksgiving. I have some tine eight and ten pound young ducks for Thanksgiving. Leave orders at HERALD office.

JOHN A. MOUW,

Butchering. I am now prepared to do your butchering on short notice. Phone 187. Cash paid for bides.

HENRY VER SCHOOR.

FUR LINED COATS

Mens dress coats $5 to $22. Boys and childrens overcoats $2.50 to $12.

Sheeplined coats from $3.75 to

A Corduroy sheeplined coat with Wombat collar $6.00.

Warm footwear for men, wo-

Felt and feltlined shoes and slippers

Sheeplined shoes and pacs.

Overshoes and rubbers of all kinds. Mens heavy overshoes at $1.35 guaranteed to give satisfactory wear or we will replace them.

RHYNSBURGER:

BARGAINS GROCERIES

Rev. J. P. Winter and P. J. De Two Hundred Dozen cans of goods placed upon the

BARGAIN COUNTER

To be sold at the following prices:

•
Peaches, 6 cans for	$1.00
Apricots, 6 cans for	1.00
Plums, 6 cans for	1.00
Pears, 10 caus for	1.00
Blackberries, 11 cans for	1.00
Raspberries, 10 cans for	1.00
Corn, Favorite Brand, 12 cans for	1.00
Corn, Mikado Brand, 15 cans for -	1.00
Peas, Tacco Brand, 12 cans for	1.00
Peas, Wisconsin Brand, 14 cans for -	1.00
Tomatoes, Van Camp, big size 7 eans for	1.00
Beans, large size, 12 cans for	1.00
Salmon, 9 cans for	1.00

WM. KELLEY.

ORANGE CITY, IOWA.